Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

1. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

2. Claims 62-64 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Roberson (US 2002/0024438) in view of Baggarly (US 5,917,411).

Regarding claim 62, Roberson discloses a method to automate home delivery comprising the steps of using a mailbox having at least one video camera 70, capturing video/audio data of a package delivery processes that invoked one of triggering events 21, and storing the captured video/audio data in retrievable and verifiable form (abstract). Roberson does not disclose a password protected door. Baggarly teaches the use of a mailbox having a password protected door 22. It would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to include a password protected door to the method of Roberson as taught by Baggarly for the purpose of providing authorization to access the mailbox.

Regarding claim 63, Roberson discloses storing the captured video/audio data into pluggable and removable memory modules and the carrier and the mailbox user each keeping one memory module where video/audio data can be retrieved for later usage (0013-0016).

Regarding claim 64, Roberson discloses storing the captured and dated video/audio data at a remotely connected computer and retrieving the dated video/audio data (0013-0016).

3. Claims 1-61 are allowed.

4. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
